Brio IGT Toscana Rosso, from indigenous Tuscan grape varieties, is a fresh and fruity wine that beautifully expresses its terroir.

Brio is a well balanced and elegant wine, it is vibrant with energy and it is persistent on the palate. This shows how even a young Sangiovese can express authenticity and complexity.

The image on the Brio label represents a large fresco realized by Sandro Chia. The artwork is located in the main dining room of Castello Romitorio, Montalcino, and it is filled with archaic and dreamlike symbols. The chessboard is a symbol of existence, the violin represents the sound of souls, the clock expresses the circle of life, the transience of time, but also order and structure. These are all elements one can identify in Brio, a wine that is vibrant and musical, where nature, soul and time can create beauty and wonder.
